- April 25-26 (Twilight weekend)
 - All day Friday, Saturday until 3pm
 - Reviewed workshop schedule and discussed the process

From the M&C Government Operations Committee – Board/Authority/Commission Consolidation

Daniel Sizemore, Bike, Pedestrian and Safety Coordinator

- Government Operations Committee, a committee of the Mayor and Commission, has been looking at all Boards, Authorities and Commissions and is proposing combining/merging
 - Presently the GOC has asked our opinion on merging the Trails aspect of Greenway Commission into Athens in Motion
 - Discussion/notes to pass to Chair of AiMC for organization/delivery:

From Ed, Oconee Rivers Greenway Commission:

- The proposal was discussed at a recent Greenway Commission meeting. They do not wish to be included/merged with any other commission/entity. Desire to continue in its current form
- There is concern about remaining “Ordinance” status
- The trails provide much exposure to the Greenway Commission and removing them would significantly (negatively) impact on them

From Daniel Sizemore, TPW:

- TPW favors the merger, or at least having AiMC take oversight over the trail portion
- AiMC oversight would allow TPW greater involvement, allowing for better coordination
- They see the merger as an opportunity for better planning of transportation aspects of the Greenway

Other comments:

Art commented that he utilizes the Greenway twice a day and it personally is the heart of his commute. He also questioned if either commission is at risk of being decommissioned?

Aaron Redmond offered that the Greenway is utilized more for recreation than being actual transportation based.

Mark Ebell has seen varying priorities on the Greenway Commission between trail development and conservation over the years.

Teresa questioned what value could be added and/or what issues could be resolved by merging.
